

Team Information:

Team Summit is a not-for-profit men's volleyball team that has been a member of the Great Lakes Region (<http://www.greatlakesvolleyball.org/>) and USA Volleyball (<http://www.usavolleyball.org/>) for over seven years. The United States Volleyball Association (USVBA) was created in 1928. Now known as USA Volleyball (USAV), the association is the National Governing Body for the sport and the parent organization of the USA Men's and Women's National Teams. The Great Lakes Region, in association with USA Volleyball, sponsors tournaments around the Chicagoland area at venues such as Loyola University-Chicago, University of Illinois-Chicago, and the Great Lakes Sports Center. Team Summit competes in the AA level tournaments, which is the highest local level available during the season. At the season ending USAV Nationals, Summit competes at the Open level, which is the highest possible national level available. Summit consists of fourteen former Division I varsity and club volleyball players from the Chicagoland area. Some of the volleyball programs represented on Team Summit are: George Mason University, Loyola University-Chicago, Ohio State University, University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) and the University of Illinois.

Team Accomplishments: Team Summit has a rich history of winning over its seven year existence by winning two USAV AA National Championships and compiling a match record of 312 wins with only 42 losses.
